

TransDigm Group Plans to Divest Souriau-Sunbank Connection Technologies to Eaton

July 22, 2019

CLEVELAND, July 22, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- TransDigm Group Incorporated (NYSE: TDG), a leading global designer, producer and supplier of highly engineered aircraft components, announced today that it has received a binding offer pursuant to a put option agreement (the "Put Agreement") from Eaton Corporation plc (NYSE:ETN) for the acquisition by Eaton of the business of Souriau-Sunbank Connection Technologies (Souriau-Sunbank) in a transaction valued at approximately $920 million. Pursuant to the terms of the Put Agreement, after completion of the consultation process with Souriau's French works councils, TransDigm (through its subsidiaries) will have the right to require Eaton to enter into a securities purchase agreement providing for the purchase by Eaton of the shares of the Souriau-Sunbank companies. In addition to the consultation with Souriau's French works councils, the transaction is subject to execution and delivery of the securities purchase agreement and other definitive agreements and customary closing conditions, including receipt of required regulatory approvals.

Souriau-Sunbank was acquired by TransDigm in March 2019 as part of the Esterline Technologies acquisition and is a leading global supplier of highly-engineered interconnect solutions for harsh environments serving customers primarily in aerospace, defense and space end markets. The business is headquartered in Versailles, France and generated revenues of $363 million for the trailing 12-month period ended June 30, 2019.

W. Nicholas Howley, Executive Chairman commented, "As previously communicated, we have been considering divesting some Esterline portfolio businesses that do not align well with TransDigm's strategy. As such, we are pleased to have an agreement for the divestiture of Souriau-Sunbank to Eaton. This is a high quality, well established connector business. We are confident that its customers will continue to be well-served as we work toward a successful completion of the transaction."

The transaction is expected to be completed during the fourth quarter of calendar 2019.

Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC acted as financial advisor to TransDigm, and Baker & Hostetler LLP acted as TransDigm's lead legal counsel.
