Safe Harbor Statement

This presentation contains forward-looking statements that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. You can identify forward-looking statements by words such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “should,” “will,” “would” or similar words. You should consider these statements carefully because they discuss our plans, targets, strategies, prospects and expectations concerning our business, operating results, financial condition and similar matters. We believe that it is important to communicate our future expectations to our current and potential investors. There will be events in the future, however, that we are not able to predict accurately or control. Our actual results may differ materially from the expectations we describe in our forward-looking statements. Factors or events that could cause our actual results to materially differ may emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for us to accurately predict all of them. You should be aware that the occurrence of any such event could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operation and financial position. Any forward-looking statement in this presentation speaks only as of the date on which we make it. We undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law (See next page).

Safe Harbor Statement (cont'd)

These events include but are not limited to: the sensitivity of our business to the number of flight hours that our customers' planes spend aloft and our customers' profitability, both of which are affected by general economic conditions; future terrorist attacks; our reliance on certain customers; the U.S. defense budget and risks associated with being a government supplier; failure to maintain government or industry approvals; failure to complete or successfully integrate acquisitions; our substantial indebtedness; potential environmental liabilities; and other factors.

INNOVATIVE AEROSPACE SOLUTIONS

TRANSDIGM
GROUP INC.

Executive Summary

- TransDigm Inc., a subsidiary of TransDigm Group Incorporated (NYSE: TDG) (“TransDigm” or the “Company”), intends to raise $500 million in financing to support its acquisition of AmSafe Global Holdings, Inc. (“AmSafe” or the “Target”). The new financing will consist of a $500 million First Lien Term Loan.
- On January 20, 2012 TransDigm announced its acquisition of AmSafe for $750 million, approximately 12.4x AmSafe’s FY 12/31/11 EBITDA. The purchase includes significant tax benefits of approximately $70 million (on a net present value basis) to be realized in 2012 and beyond.
 - Proceeds will be used to fund the $750 million acquisition of AmSafe and associated fees and expenses.
- TransDigm is a leading supplier of highly engineered aircraft components for use on nearly all commercial and military aircraft in service today.
 - For the fiscal year ended September 30, 2011(excluding AmSafe), the Company generated pro forma revenues and pro forma EBITDA As Defined of $1,366 million and $644 million (47% EBITDA margin), respectively.
- AmSafe is a global manufacturer and supplier of aerospace, military, and ground transportation seatbelts, specialty restraints, cargo and lift nets and other products.
 - For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, AmSafe generated Revenues and AmSafe EBITDA of $260 million and $61 million (23% EBITDA margin), respectively.
- TransDigm currently has the following debt outstanding:
 - Existing Term Loan of $1,538 million (approximately 2.4x 9/30/11 Pro forma EBITDA As Defined)
 - $1,600 million of 7.75% Senior Subordinated Notes (total gross leverage of approximately 4.9x 9/30/11 Pro forma EBITDA As Defined)
- The transaction is expected to close in February 2012

Note: Pro forma revenue and pro forma EBITDA as Defined includes TransDigm revenue and EBITDA as Defined, as applicable, plus revenue and EBITDA, as applicable, attributable to recent acquisitions of McKechnie (less divestitures of the fasteners business and AQS), Talley Actuation, Schneller and Harco prior to the date of acquisition for fiscal 9/30/11.
